

Specialist admissions services

Some higher education courses are recruited through different specialist admissions services.

CUKAS - Conservatoires UK Admissions Service

If you are interested in studying a music course, you may wish to consider applying through CUKAS. CUKAS is an admissions service which provides practice-based music courses which are run at UK conservatoires.

GTTR - Graduate Teacher Training Registry

If you are considering becoming a teacher, you are eligible to apply for a postgraduate teaching course if you are a degree graduate, or will complete a degree before the postgraduate course starts.

UKPASS - UK Postgraduate Application and Statistical Service

This service is open to anyone wanting to apply to postgraduate courses at the universities and colleges listed on the UKPASS website.
